

Pleasant Hill 2040 General Plan Draft Housing Element Opportunity for Public Input

JOIN US ON DECEMBER 13, 2022 TO PROVIDE PUBLIC COMMENT AND INPUT ON THE PLEASANT HILL'S DRAFT HOUSING ELEMENT

The City of Pleasant Hill will hold a joint City Council and Planning Commission hybrid meeting (in-person and virtual, tele/video, to review and collect public comments on the Public Review Draft 2023-2031 (6th Cycle) Housing Element on Tuesday, December 13, 2022, starting at 6:30PM. The meeting will include a presentation summarizing the Housing Element, key findings, and new implementation actions to address housing needs. Following the presentation, the Planning Commission and City Council will hear public comments, discuss the Draft, and provide comments to City staff.

The purpose of a Housing Element is to provide an assessment of current and future housing needs, identify opportunities and constraints on housing production, establish goals, policies, and programs to meet those needs, and to update City practices and regulations to reflect new State laws. The Housing Element identifies strategies and programs that focus on conserving and improving existing affordable housing, maximizing housing opportunities throughout the community, assisting in the provision of new affordable housing, removing governmental and other constraints to housing investment, and promoting fair and equal housing opportunities.
